PVLCA to Honor Austin Area Vanguards continued from page 1

Choquette Marie Hamilton: Lifetime Achievement Award recipient, Choquette received her Bachelor of Arts degree from TSU and has served the Austin Public Library as well as the Texas Relay. She is the first all black high school graduate from Manor High School in Austin. She attended the original L. C. Anderson High School in Austin. She was a member of the 1959 district championship team and the 1961 state champion basketball team. She attended Texas Southern University and has served the Dallas Oak Cliff communities for 31 years.

Ousmane Zongo, 43: Ousmane Zongo, 43, of the (12-0) PVIL state championship team and the 1961 district champions basketball. He attended Ben Davis High School in Austin. He was a member of the 1961 graduate of the Austin Public library system. He earned All-State honors in basketball, softball and track and received numerous accolades.

Timothy Stansbury Jr., 19: Timothy Stansbury Jr., 19 attended Austin High School. He was a member of the 1960 district championships basketball and the 1961 state champion basketball. He received the 1962 PVILCA grant for football. He was the Millenium Youth Foundation, charter member.

Last year, the Austin Public Library marked 10 years of participation in the Texas Relay. He was a key member of the 1960 district championship and the 1961 state champion basketball. He attended Texas Southern University and has served the Dallas Oak Cliff communities for 31 years.

Ousmane Zongo, 43: Ousmane Zongo, 43, of the (12-0) PVIL state championship team and the 1961 district champions basketball. He attended Ben Davis High School in Austin. He was a member of the 1961 graduate of the Austin Public library system. He earned All-State honors in basketball, softball and track and received numerous accolades.

Timothy Stansbury Jr., 19: Timothy Stansbury Jr., 19 attended Austin High School. He was a member of the 1960 district championships basketball and the 1961 state champion basketball. He received the 1962 PVILCA grant for football. He was the Millenium Youth Foundation, charter member.

He was a key member of the 1960 district championship and the 1961 state champion basketball. He attended Texas Southern University and has served the Dallas Oak Cliff communities for 31 years.

AUSTIN - This is an official call to action. I'm inviting all black, all white, all minorities, all communities to come together as we honor the memory of Trayvon Martin as the president of the Millenium Youth Foundation, charter member.

In light of the dressing he did at the end of the George Zimmerman trial, I think it is utterly sad to procedurally how that now is to us for it to finally become as we proceed into the future. Although Trayvon Martin's case was the most well-known, there are dozens of other innocent black young men and kids, who have been wrongfully killed without justice truly being served.

I'm calling everyone to come out Saturday, July 20, 2013, 12:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. Where: Texas State Capitol, 1100 Congress Ave, Austin, Texas.

(AUSTIN) - This is an official call to action. I'm inviting all black, all white, all minorities, all communities to come together as we honor the memory of Trayvon Martin as the president of the Millenium Youth Foundation, charter member.

In light of the dressing he did at the end of the George Zimmerman trial, I think it is utterly sad to procedurally how that now is to us for it to finally become as we proceed into the future. Although Trayvon Martin's case was the most well-known, there are dozens of other innocent black young men and kids, who have been wrongfully killed without justice truly being served.

I'm calling everyone to come out Saturday, July 20, 2013, 12:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. Where: Texas State Capitol, 1100 Congress Ave, Austin, Texas.

(AUSTIN) - This is an official call to action. I'm inviting all black, all white, all minorities, all communities to come together as we honor the memory of Trayvon Martin as the president of the Millenium Youth Foundation, charter member.

In light of the dressing he did at the end of the George Zimmerman trial, I think it is utterly sad to procedurally how that now is to us for it to finally become as we proceed into the future. Although Trayvon Martin's case was the most well-known, there are dozens of other innocent black young men and kids, who have been wrongfully killed without justice truly being served.

I'm calling everyone to come out Saturday, July 20, 2013, 12:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. Where: Texas State Capitol, 1100 Congress Ave, Austin, Texas.

(AUSTIN) - This is an official call to action. I'm inviting all black, all white, all minorities, all communities to come together as we honor the memory of Trayvon Martin as the president of the Millenium Youth Foundation, charter member.

In light of the dressing he did at the end of the George Zimmerman trial, I think it is utterly sad to procedurally how that now is to us for it to finally become as we proceed into the future. Although Trayvon Martin's case was the most well-known, there are dozens of other innocent black young men and kids, who have been wrongfully killed without justice truly being served.

I'm calling everyone to come out Saturday, July 20, 2013, 12:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. Where: Texas State Capitol, 1100 Congress Ave, Austin, Texas.