

Pastor Parker to receive a 2018 Distinguished Lawyer Award

Rev. Joseph C. Parker, Jr.,
Pastor of David Chapel Missionary Baptist Church

AUSTIN, TX - Pastor Parker has been selected to receive an Austin Bar Association's "2018 Distinguished Lawyer" award. The award will be presented at the annual 2018 Austin Bar Foundation Gala on Saturday, January 20, 2018, and "recognizes the dedication and hard work of an attorney who has practiced for 30 years or more and has significantly contributed to the profession and the community." The gala will be held at the JW Marriott (110 East 2nd St, Austin, 78701).

Proceeds from the Gala benefit the Austin Bar Foundation, which supports programs like the Self-Represented Litigant Project, Free Legal Advice Clinic for Veterans, Austin Adoption Day, CANLAW Clinic, approximately $20,000 annually in grants to area legal-related programs, and more! Tickets are available at <http://www.austinbar.org/foundation/gala/>.

HT President Emeritus Dr. Joseph T. McMillan, Jr. Memorial Service to be held in King-Seabrook Chapel

AUSTIN, TX – A memorial service for Dr. Joseph T. McMillan, Jr., President Emeritus of Huston-Tillotson University, will be held Saturday, Jan. 13, 2018, at 11 a.m. on the campus at 900 Chicon Street in King-Seabrook Chapel.

Dr. McMillan served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Huston-Tillotson College from July 1, 1988, to June 30, 2000. He was named President Emeritus after his retirement. Serving as the fourth president of what is now Huston-Tillotson University, Dr. McMillan's 12-year legacy included the development of new course majors to address workforce development in Austin; strengthening standards for admission, retention, and financial aid eligibility; implementing technology throughout campus; building and maintenance enhancements; the initiation of comprehensive strategic planning processes; and increased financial stability.

"Dr. McMillan's strong passion for the University and its students was remarkable," said President and Chief Executive Officer Dr. Colette Pierce Burnette. "As President Emeritus of a 142-year old institution, he was consistently advocating for young people. I am pleased to have known him and forever grateful for his support and encouragement. He will be missed."

Dr. McMillan was active in civic, cultural, religious, and educational organizations throughout the nation. He was a Trustee of the Pension Boards of the United Church of Christ, a member of the Board of Directors of The College Fund/UNCF and of the Independent Colleges and Universities of Texas (ICUT), Secretary of the Council of Presidents of The United Methodist Church, and the former Chair of the Council for Higher Education of the United Church of Christ (1996-1999) and of the Board of Directors of the Texas Association of Developing Colleges

(1993-1997). In the City of Austin, he was a member of the Austin Regional Advisory Board of Chase Bank of Texas; a member of the Certification Advisory Council of the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board; and a former member of the Board of Directors of the Greater Austin Chamber of Commerce (1990-1993). He was a member of the Congregational Church of Austin and a Life Member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated. He served on the Mayor's Blue Ribbon Task Force to advise the selection of the Austin Independent School District Superintendent of Schools in 1999.

Dr. McMillan was born in Valdosta, Georgia, on July 19, 1944. He is the son of the late Rev. Joseph T. McMillan, Sr., a minister in the African Methodist Episcopal Church, and the late Mrs. Olivia Cooper McMillan, a former teacher. Dr. McMillan lived and attended public schools throughout the South, and graduated from New Stanton Senior High School of Jacksonville, Florida, in 1961. His special interests included counseling young people and nineteenth century history of the education of African-Americans.

Gifts in Dr. McMillan's memory may be made to the Joseph T. McMillan, Jr. Scholarship Fund established at Huston-Tillotson University, Attn: Institutional Advancement, 900 Chicon Street, Austin, TX 78702.

Feds Grant Texas $25 Billion Extension of Medicaid Waiver

AUSTIN, TX - Health care providers in Texas are getting a $25 billion shot in the arm with the five-year extension of a Medicaid program by the federal government. The plan, known as an 1115 Demonstration Waiver is considered a low-cost alternative to traditional Medicaid. It provides hospitals and other caregivers with incentives to improve care access and quality, and helps pay for uncompensated care. Stacy Wilson, president of Children's Hospital Association of Texas, says since Texas chose not to expand full Medicaid coverage under the Affordable Care Act, the waiver extends coverage to many low-income patients who might otherwise go without.

Sunday Morning Worship @ 11: am

This life, therefore, is not righteousness, but growth in righteousness; not health, but healing; not being, but becoming; not rest, but exercise. We are not yet what we shall be, but we are growing toward it. The process is not yet finished, but it is going on. This is not the end, but it is the road. All does not yet gleam in glory, but all is being purified.

--- Martin Luther
