

REGGAE IS ALIVE AND WELL IN THE "LIVE MUSIC CAPITAL OF THE WORLD"

By Naomi Richard & R. J. Johnson | VILLAGER NEWS

(AUSTIN, TX) - On October 20th, 2018 Clinton Fearon returns to Austin's Flamingo Cantina, and opening the show will be two Austin Reggae Music4Life Artists Alan Moe Monsarrat and Phillipidon.

Born in Jamaica, Clinton Fearon became bassist, vocalist and lyricist of the mythic Gladiators at the age of 19. He was also a session musician for Coxson Dodd at Studio One and Lee 'Scratch' Perry's at Black Ark in the 70s, two of the main producers on the island at that time.

After leaving Jamaica in 1987, Fearon started a new career in Seattle. He eventually formed his own band called Boogie Brown in the Mid-90s with local musicians. Since then, Clinton has recorded 12 albums, the last one to be released this year.

Being one of the most active reggae artist of his generation, Clinton Fearon is touring intensively in Europe and in the Pacific Northwest. He tours all over the world with his full band or just with his guitar for solo acoustic concerts.

Opening act Alan Moe Monsarrat was born in 1951 in Phenix City, Alabama. At age 13 he started singing with a band near Tokyo, Japan. After moving back to the states he joined a band in San Antonio, Texas. He stood out as a singer and in 1968 he started playing bass as well. In 1973, Monsarrat found his passion in reggae while in Hawaii, and later he became a member of the first Reggae band in Texas, The Lotions. He now performs with The Mau Mau Chaplains every Wednesday at Flamingo Cantina.

Also on this highly talented showcase is Philip White aka Phillipidon. Phillipidon was born in Kingston, Jamaica. He is known for his gravelly-gruff voice and weaving wanton mayhem amongst audiences with his impromptu outbursts during live performances. Phillipidon and his manager, R. J. Johnson, drove all over Texas in the 90s performing with Root 1. When he is not doing music, he is a college professor teaching anatomy, biology and physiology at Houston Community College.

Flamingo Cantina is known for bringing good vibes and hot music to Austin for the past twenty five years, with a focus on world, reggae, Latin, hip hop, dub, ska and more. Located in the heart of Austin's 6th Street Entertainment District, Flamingo Cantina is renowned for bringing amazing artists to an intimate venue. "This life, therefore, is not righteousness, but growth in righteousness; not health, but healing; not being, but becoming; not rest, but exercise. We are not yet what we shall be, but we are growing toward it. The process is not yet finished, but it is going on. This is not the end, but it is the road. All does not yet gleam in glory, but all is being purified." --- Martin Luther
