publican in the race. Despite that big support, Lauren White managed to win the race.

However, for Lakeway Democrat it was a "great night" due to the fact they were able to expand their vote tally. Not only did they expand their vote tally but also got one person elected. According to TCDP Precinct Chair Fitzharris, "the Lakeway Elections were amazing if you think about it. Sadly, Tiffany McMillan didn't win, but she made room for it to be possible for a woman to run for Mayor for the very first time. She has forced the resignation of the City treasurer and made it virtually impossible for the sitting "cat fishing" Mayor Joe Bain to seek re-election. This town will forever be changed because of her tenacity and persistence."

Saturday, May 5, 2018, Lakeway residents went to polls to vote for the Mayoral race and also the Lake Travis school Board. According to the 2000 Census, Lakeway has a population of 11,000 people and has been growing at a fast pace. In the Mayoral race, Tiffany McMillan was running against Joe Bain incumbent mayor of Lake way. Although these are non-partisan race, the Democrats in this race were Tiffany McMillan. Moreover, Tiffany McMillan lost this race.

In the Lake Travis school board, there were 4 candidates vying for this seat. Lauren White who is a Democrat ran against Jan Moreland, Daniel E. Gonzalez and Adrienne Trigg. In this race, Lauren White was supported by the grassroots Democrat like Travis County Democratic Party Precinct Chair Stephanie Fitzharris. On the other hand, Daniel Gonzalez who is a republican received numerous endorsement, including the one from Texas State Representative Donna Howard a Democrat. Some people were surprised that a prominent Democrat supported a re-

CHRIS PERRI
U.S. Congress District 25 ★ 2018
A VOTE FOR OUR Community.

endorsed by
Nelson Linder & Rev. G.V. Clark

For the last three decades, I have worked with a lot of people in our community advocating for civil rights and public education. We have worked hard to make sure that genuinely we put people first! That is why I am endorsing Chris Perri for Congress in District 25. He is one of the people who truly cares about serving the entire community.
